IMPORTANT NOTE – PLEASE READ!

- This examination slip is the proof of eligibility to sit for the examination, therefore you are required to print out this exam slip.
- Kindly present your Student ID along with this Exam Slip.
- No official signature and official seal of Examination and Records Unit are required on this paper and it must not have any other mark or scribbles written on this slip.
- You are hereby warned that cheating in examination is a serious offence. No handphone, bag/handbag, programmable calculators or unauthorized materials such as notes, papers or scribbles in whatever form, from which you might gain assistance are allowed in this examination hall/room. AN EXCUSE THAT YOU HAVE FORGOTTEN OR YOU DID NOT REALISE THAT SUCH AN ITEM IS WITH YOU WITHIN THE EXAMINATION VENUE IS NOT AN EXCUSE TO RELIEF YOU FROM YOUR GUILT.
- If you are not feeling well, you are advised not to attempt your examination and kindly seek the necessary medical treatment from MMU panel doctors. The Medical Certificate (MC) and the Medical Report form must be submitted to Examination and Records Unit (ERU) within 2 working days after the last date of the MC. ERU will deem the case of students, who have attempted the examination (although for a few seconds), but later forwarded MCs to Examination & Records Unit as invalid.
- You are reminded that you have to adhere to the MMU Dress Code. The Chief Invigilator has the right to request you to leave the venue should you do not follow the Dress Code policy accordingly.
- You are not allowed to enter the examination venue 30 minutes after the exam starts.
